

A Suze Orman Hate Club

Email received from UglyBugley.....

I've come across Suze Orman here and there on TV occasionally, but, yesterday, she was on Oprah with the "Octomom" pretending to sort out her personal finances. All I got out of it was that Suze's full of herself and that she's a total drama queen who loves to be in the limelight. She's on a total ego trip and often refers to herself in the third person, i.e. "a Suzie Smackdown". Anyone who refers to themselves in the third person is an egomaniac, in my opinion, as though they are so great that they can speak about themselves as if they were a separate entity. Ugh...pass the bucket, I think I'm gonna puke! She is so nauseating. If I ever come across her on TV again, I'll switch the channel, for sure.

Are there any other Suze Orman Hate fans out there?? Come on and let me know! Email me and I will put your email on this page!
